Members of the public can get information on how to return to sport and activities in a safe way by visiting Link. The campaign message is tailored to ensure that it reaches those most in need of support and encouragement and it is hoped that this campaign can touch the hearts and minds of every age, ethnicity, demographic, ability and more.

16. We Act are launching a new Soft Launch Town Hall session will be a chance for you to find out all about the campaign, and learn how you, and the groups in your area, can get involved. We'll be revealing the designs behind the campaign, sharing the campaign toolkit and showing you how organisations can fold the campaign into their own activities and communications. As Public Participation Networks, you play a vital role in our communities and we want to make sure you hear all about the campaign before it goes live in a few weeks' time.

The campaign presents a great opportunity for community and voluntary groups in your area to have their stories heard and show the impact they have in our communities every day. Thanks to the incredible input of the sector so far, the We Act campaign – focused on elevating the stories of impact from our sector - is launching publicly on 27 October. And we all need to be ready.

This exciting briefing is all about how you can be part of We Act. It's not to be missed! RSVP

Simply click on your preferred date below and fill in the short RSVP form. Please note that all sessions are the same, so you don't need to attend more than one.

18. Joining the Dots Participatory Budgeting (PB) process on the theme of 'Creating Connections' with your members and contacts. This is a digital and an all-Ireland PB Process. PB is a process that gives people a direct say in the allocation of a portion of a public budget

Collaboration for Change (CfC) and partners are delighted to announce the launch of Join the Dots Participatory Budgeting (PB) around the theme of creating connections. CfC is a collective of organisations and individual activists who are working alongside each other for the Common Good. We work to create open spaces for shared learning, peer support, practical hope and collaboration.

Individuals and Groups can bid for up to €500 (no Euro equivalent) under the theme of 'Creating Connections' this could be for example, with people, nature, environment, communities, sports, young and old, food, heritage etc. Anyone aged 8+ can get involved.

It's a very simple bid form along with a short 2 min video (captured on a mobile phone/ camera) pitching the idea. The deadline has been extended until 12 November 2021 and projects will have until April 2022 to deliver.
